

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The fund aims to grow retirement fund savings by meaningful, inflation-beating margins over the long term. The fund is managed to comply with the prudential investment limits set for South African retirement funds (Regulation 28 to the Pension Funds Act).

INVESTOR PROFILE

Investors whose risk tolerance is below that of pure equity fund investors and those who require the asset allocation decision to be made for them, within prudential guidelines. Because the fund complies with Regulation 28, it is ideally suited to being a substantial component of any retirement savings portfolio and is especially suitable for retirement funds, pension fund members and holders of contractual savings products. Available as a tax free investment account.

PORTFOLIO PERFORMANCE VS BENCHMARK

INVESTMENT STRATEGY VS INFLATION

In managing retirement portfolios, Foord aims to achieve returns that exceed inflation plus 5% per annum over any rolling five-year period. The Investment Strategy vs Inflation chart shows the annualised returns over rolling 5 years achieved by Foord on a composite of similar portfolios since the inception of the strategy on 1 January 1984 (gross of annual fees). This composite return information includes the market value weighted returns of the Foord Balanced Fund unit trust from 1 September 2002. Foord Balanced Fund unit trust is now the single largest portfolio in the composite. The chart illustrates that the actual composite return achieved for investors over any rolling five-year period has only once dipped below the South African inflation rate. It also demonstrates that real returns of 5% per annum are consistently achievable in mandates of this nature when measured over the appropriate long-term period.

COMMENTARY

- Global equities (-8.4% in US dollars) fell sharply as persistent and accelerating inflation increased fears that the Fed can no longer orchestrate a soft landing — the S&P 500 Index (-8.3%) recorded the worst first-half performance since 1970, while Chinese bourses (+6.6%) were the best performing global stocks, causing emerging markets (-6.6%) to outperform
- The allocation to foreign assets was a significant contributor to fund returns on strong stock selection and the weaker rand — the Foord International Fund has outperformed 95% of its Morningstar peers with a year-to-date drawdown of just -0.4% (in US dollars) against the peer group average of -13.5%
- Developed market bond yields rose, with US 10-year yields latterly retreating below 3.0% after having reached a mid-month peak near 3.5% — as investor worries for untamed inflation gave way to recession fears following the Fed's 75bp increase of the targeted federal funds rate
- Oil (-6.5%) fell for the first time this year on rising global recession fears and pressures in soft commodities also began to ease with wheat (-20.1%), corn (-1.3%) and soybeans (-0.5%) prices retreating from recent highs — gold (-2.1%) declined as real rates now on offer on some instruments increase the opportunity cost of holding gold
- The FTSE/JSE Capped All Share Index (-7.8% in rands) tracked global bourses sharply lower on global recession fears, compounded by the JSE's high weighting to economically sensitive resources companies (-16.3%) — financials (-13.3%) also came under pressure while industrials (+0.9%) were marginally positive on a surging Naspers/Prosus price and resilience from the large non-resource rand hedge companies
- The All Bond Index (-3.1%) posted negative returns as the yield curve shifted up on higher global bond yields, hawkish SARB commentary and net foreign selling — core holdings in the 3 to 7-year maturity bucket outperformed the longer duration securities which are more price sensitive to rising yields
- Media giants Naspers (+38.3%) and Prosus (+30.0%) were the largest contributors to performance while large non-resource rand hedges British American Tobacco (+1.4%), Anheuser Busch-Inbev (-0.2%) and Richemont (-0.5%) also protected investor capital — FirstRand (-13.9%) and Standard Bank (-13.2%) consolidated after a strong year-to-date run, while BHP Billiton (-9.6%) detracted on lower commodity prices
- The rand (-4.1% against the US dollar) initially strengthened but ended the month weaker after a higher-than-expected US inflation print and more hawkish Fed comments — the currency remains structurally vulnerable but should have some support near term given current inverse inflation differentials with the major developed economies

FEE STRUCTURE

The annual fee is based on portfolio performance with the daily fee rate being adjusted up or down based on the portfolio's one-year rolling return relative to that of its benchmark and is subject to a minimum fee rate. Fees accrue in the Foord global funds as disclosed.

PERFORMANCE FEES

Performance fees align investor and manager return objectives by rewarding the manager for outperformance while penalising the manager for underperformance. Foord's performance fee structure increases or decreases the daily fee levied based on the over- or underperformance of the Foord unit trust portfolios relative to their benchmarks. When the portfolio return exceeds the benchmark return, the daily performance fee rate is increased proportionately. Similarly, underperformance causes the daily performance fee rate to decrease proportionately. Performance fee rates are not capped for the reason that outperformance is generally not earned smoothly.

The annual fee is adjusted up or down daily by the performance fee calculated as the difference between the rolling one-year net-of-fee return and the benchmark return for the same period, multiplied by the performance fee sharing rate, which may vary from fund to fund.

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (unit trusts) are generally medium- to long-term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Performance is calculated for the portfolio. Individual investor performance may differ as a result of the actual investment date, the date of reinvestment and withholding taxes. Performance may be affected by changes in the market or economic conditions and legal, regulatory and tax requirements. Foord Unit Trusts does not provide any guarantee either with respect to the capital or the performance return of the investment. Unit trusts are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing. Foord Unit Trusts does not engage in scrip lending. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, this cost is not borne by the investor. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request. Distributions may be subject to mandatory withholding taxes. Portfolio information is presented using effective exposures. A fund of funds invests only in other Collective Investment Scheme portfolios, which may levy their own charges, which could result in a higher fee structure. A feeder fund is a portfolio that, apart from assets in liquid form, consists solely of units in a single portfolio of a Collective Investment Scheme which could result in a higher fee structure. Foord Unit Trusts is authorised to close the portfolio to new investors in order to manage the portfolio more efficiently in accordance with its mandate.

UNIT PRICE

Unit trust prices are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total value of all assets in the portfolio including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions from the portfolio. Forward pricing is used. Prices are determined at 15h00 each business day and are published daily on www.foord.co.za and in national newspapers. The cut-off time for instruction is 14h00 each business day.

TER

A Total Expense Ratio (TER) is a measure of a portfolio's annual expenses, fees and charges, expressed as a percentage of the average daily value of the portfolio. These expenses include the annual fee, VAT, audit fees, bank charges and costs (excluding trading costs) incurred in any underlying funds. Included in the TER, but separately disclosed, is a performance fee (or credit) resulting from overperformance (or underperformance) against the benchmark. A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TERs. Performance return information and prices are always stated net of the expenses, fees and charges included in the TER. The TER for the fund's financial year ended 31 March 2022 was 0.47%.

FOREIGN INVESTMENT RISK

The portfolio may include underlying foreign investments. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying foreign investments to go up or down. The underlying foreign investments may be adversely affected by political instability as well as exchange controls, changes in taxation, foreign investment policies, restrictions on repatriation of investments and other restrictions and controls that may be imposed by the relevant authorities in the relevant countries.
